Attached is the documentation as required by the Court. I have spoken with Dr. Engushov and obtained her records. However, I have not been able to obtain her final review of this document. However, this is how I believe she will testify. Hopefully, on Friday, I will be able to send you the final version with changes, if any. I am also sending a copy of this in the mail along with the records I have obtained from her. Please contact me if you have any questions.
